Our Go-to Guide to AME Open Calls, Delegation Trips & Networking Opportunities 2026

To make your annual planning easier, we have compiled the Austrian Music Export activities and programs for 2026 here. The overview is aimed at artists and music business companies of all genres based in Austria who want to network internationally, further their education, or position their work beyond Austria. Here you will find open calls, delegation trips, discounted rates for international conferences, and showcase opportunities. Specific requirements and details on how to apply can be found in the further information for the respective open call.

NENDA Wins the FM4 Award at the Amadeus Awards 2026

Since its kick-off in 2000, the Amadeus Austrian Music Awards have been considered the country's most important and comprehensive music prize. At Austria's "homegrown Grammys," the FM4 Award is also presented annually. Particularly special because the result is determined 100% by listeners and fans, the 2026 award goes to Tyrolean musician and rapper: NENDA.
