

Vienna Is Looking Forward to the Popfest Wien

After the outstanding festival debut in 2010 and the no less spectacular sequel in the past year, the organizers of the Popfest Wien are determined to once again succeed with this year's festival edition, which will take place from the 26th - 29th of July. With a program that is more extensive than ever, the organizers should be able to settle the high expectations of fans and critics that have naturally been built up after the last two successful editions...

Read more

New Announcements for Waves Vienna 2012

This fall the festival and conference Waves Vienna will be entering its second round from the 4th – 7th of October 2012. To enhance the anticipation, the festival director Thomas Heher and Austrian Music Exporteur Franz Hergovich revealed the packed line-up of the four-day spectacle during a press conference last week. In the spirit of last year's intention to bring the different music scenes of Eastern and Western Europe closer together and to strengthen respective networks, this year's festival will set the focus on the countries France and Poland...

Read more

Delegate Discount for the MaMA Festival & Convention

In its third edition, the MaMA Festival & Convention will once again gather international representatives from all sectors of the music industry. Taking place from the 25th – 26th of October in Paris, the festival and convention offers 48 hours packed with 80 french and international artist showcases, 30 conferences, debates, presentations and workshops. As a partner of MaMA, the Austrian Music Export and its network members have been given a special discount rate on the all-access 2 days pass. This pass enables access to all the MaMA's activities...

Read more

33rd International Jazz Festival Saalfelden

Imposing mountain ridges, crisp air and the Jazz Festival Saalfelden, which enjoys an excellent reputation in the contemporary jazz scene – a tempting combination. Just in time for the last August weekend, Saalfelden will prove for four days why it's been a fixture in the European music calendar for more than three decades. The Jazz Festival Saalfelden offers an enormous stylistic range and openness to innovative tendencies of contemporary jazz – but without having to make concessions to commercialization. With a total of 31 concerts on multiple stages, the Jazz Festival Saalfelden 2012 will enter its 33rd round....

Read more

Label Feature col legno

Artist Portrait Catch-Pop String-Strong

New Release Wolfgang Muthspiel - Vienna Naked

Upcoming Concerts Austrian Artists On Tour

Follow us

Powered by YMLP.com

