AUSTRIAN COMPOSERS FUCHS, HAAS, AND REITER AT THE HUDDERSFIELD CONTEMPORARY MUSIC FESTIVAL

The Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival (HCMF) in northern England was founded in 1978 and is one of the most important festivals for contemporary music in Europe. Last November 39 concerts with 20 premieres were presented there. This year, as in previous years, countless Austrian ensembles and composers will be represented there. Including Georg Friedrich Haas, 2016's composer in residence. There will also be works from the Erste-Bank Composition Prize winners Eva Reiter and Reinhard Fuchs. READ MORE
