Ready For Breakthrough: GIN GA

In Austria it is no secret that the band GIN GA creates great music and writes excellent songs, and now more and more people are discovering this beyond national borders. Traded a few years ago as one of the big hopes of the local pop scene, the foursome is now on the verge of making quite a name for itself in Europe.

Madness Has A Name: Koenig Leopold

Koenig Leopold flips conventional music concepts inside out and leaves no stone unturned. As on the recently released debut EP "Aalfang", the two heads of this project relieve themselves from pretty much all of the usual musical approaches and stay away from the traditional, conventional music heard on the radio. Koenig Leopold's madness meets innovation, pointed humor meets creativity, experimentation meets musical finesse, musical theater meets activism. The fact that the qualities of this duo have since spread throughout Europe, is proven by the invitation to the major international 12 Points Festival in the Irish capital city - Dublin.
