AUSTRIA REPRESENTED BY SIX ACTS AT EUROSONIC NOORDERSLAG FESTIVAL 2018

Each new year starts with the first official gathering of the music industry at Eurosonic Noorderslag, Europe's most significant showcase festival. The next edition of the Dutch festival will take place on January 17-20, 2018, in Groningen, NL, featuring performances by Europe's freshest up-and-coming music artists. The festival gathers the most important music industry protagonists, such as festival organisers, bookers, music promoters, and journalists from across Europe to get a taste of the most promising acts on the market. With a lot of good talent to go around, it is a great honor to be chosen as the country's musical representative and a huge opportunity to showcase in front of so many industry professionals. This year's festival features six Austrian artists: AVEC, ANKATHIE KOI, CARI CARI, HEARTS HEARTS, THIRSTY EYES, and NIHILS. READ MORE

AUSTRIAN ACTS AT MENT LJUBLJANA 2018

MENT, the Slovenian music showcase festival and conference in Ljubljana, brings together music, art, creativity and media technology. The three-day event (31 January – 2 February) takes full advantage of its geo-strategic position, showing pride in its small, yet unique, vibrant and diverse local scene by showcasing carefully selected high-profile international guests and new musical talents "from the Balkans to the Baltic and beyond". This year's line-up includes the Austrian acts Dorit Chrysler, 5K HD, Wandl, Mother's Cake, and Mavi Phoenix. An impressive lineup of Austrian artists who have been successfully navigating international waters. READ MORE

FESTIVALS IN AUSTRIA

They do it up on the mountains as well as down by the lakes, but also in the middle of the rural vineyards or grand historic buildings. Austrians like to celebrate the topography of their country by putting on festivals. And the diversity of what is on offer is on a par with the landscape. READ MORE
