WIEN MODERN 29

Where did we come from? Where are we going? And where the heck are we, anyway? These are the "Final Questions" the new artistic director Bernhard Günther poses in his first edition of WIEN MODERN. The program of 88 concerts and 55 debut performances and premiers can be found online at www.wienmodern.at and advance ticket sales have already begun. WIEN MODERN invites a broad audience to enjoy concerts of contemporary music and its Viennese predecessors over the course of 31 days in 21 different locations. READ MORE

AUSTRIAN ACTS AT EUROSONIC FESTIVAL 2017

Eurosonic Noorderslag is the largest and most significant showcase festival in the European live music industry. The next edition of the Dutch festival will take place on January 11-14, 2017, in Groningen, NL, featuring performances by Europe's freshest up-and-coming music artists. The festival gathers the most important music industry protagonists, such as festival organizers, bookers, music promoters and journalists, from across Europe to get an idea of the most promising acts on the market. As part of the European Talent Exchange Program (ETEP), Austria will be present with local acts playing the role of musical ambassadors. First announcements include Inner Tongue and salute. WAVES VIENNA 2016 – "FOCUS COUNTRIES: THE MUSIC SCENES IN GERMANY & ISRAEL"

This year, Waves Vienna Festival took place between the 29th of September and the 1st of October. Experts and professionals from the international music industry came together in Vienna to gather impressions and information about the Austrian music scene. The festival and conference attracted 620 delegates and over 11,000 visitors to come together and take part in this year's motto: "collaborate, communicate, connect". This year's guest countries were Germany and Israel, and guests had the opportunity to get to know more about their music scenes during a panel discussion at the conference. READ MORE
