January 2017

MENT LJUBLJANA, FEB 1-3, 2017

The MENT Ljubljana 2017 conference will explore one of the strongest Eastern European markets – Poland. Other topics include festival programming and financing, “music supervision” and placement of music in films, series, advertisements and videogames, the role of public relations in music, and the future of the regional music scene. This year’s line-up includes the explosive stoner blues duo WHITE MILES, electronic duo MIEUX and the London-based songwriter STERGIN. READ MORE

EIGHT ACTS FROM AUSTRIA AT THE INTERNATIONALE KULTURBÖRSE FREIBURG

KILLING AS AN ADDICTION – MUSIC EXPORT INTERVIEW WITH DIETER KAUFMANN

“Diary of a Terrorist” is the new stage production that Dieter Kaufmann recently finished. We are still awaiting the premiere, which, because of its subject matter, is likely to cause quite a sensation. Christian Heindl spoke to the composer about his work. READ MORE

AUSTRIAN MUSIC EXPORT HIGHLIGHTS 2016

Austrian Music Export, the joint export initiative of mica – music austria and the Austrian Music Fund, can look back on an exciting year. Together with the Austrian funding bodies, institutions, supporters and international partners we were able to continue successful projects from past years while initiating new cooperations. According to Franz Hergovich (mica – music austria) and Tatjana Domany (Austrian Music Fund): “The current quality of Austrian music creation as well as the years of networking and development work are two reasons for the exceptional visibility of Austrian artists and the growing significance of Austria at the important industry events of the music scene.” READ MORE
