HUBERT VON GOISERN AND WHITE MILES AT SXSW 2016

The South by Southwest Music and Media Conference (SXSW) is a six-day event held every March in Austin, celebrating 30 years in 2016. The event not only showcases more than 2,200 acts from more than 60 countries, it also features independent films and emerging technologies. In 2016, US President Barack Obama will appear as part of a Keynote Conversation at SXSW Interactive on Friday, March 11 and First Lady Michelle Obama will be the opening Keynote at SXSW Music on Wednesday, March 16. From Austria, White Miles and Hubert von Goisern will join the line-up of the SXSW Music Festival. READ MORE

AUSTRIAN ACTS AT TALLINN MUSIC WEEK 2016

Tallinn Music Week (TMW) is an annually held music industry conference and one of the biggest indoor festivals in the Nordic-Baltic region that has grown into a vibrant city festival, presenting music, but also food, arts and design. The festival brings together close to 900 music industry players, the artist line-up presents more than 200 acts from around 25 countries and diverse musical genres, attracting an audience of nearly 25,000 music lovers from Estonia and its neighboring countries. The internationally recognized event serves both as a networking platform for industry professionals and a diving-board for emerging acts around the world to get noticed by international and local talent-spotters and media. PAROV STELAR – „LIVE@PUKKELPOP“

Parov Stelar might not need a detailed introduction, but his biography sounds pretty good when summarised. He was the founder of electroswing and has been cultivating this popular music style for the last ten years. So it's not too surprising that he decided to celebrate his career by releasing his first big live album: Live@Pukkelpop READ MORE
